

1. Data Dashboard is customizable (Can “drill down” from this page for a quick review)
  - a. 10 At-Risk Students
  - b. PSSA/Keystone
  - c. PSSA Anchor Breakdown
  - d. Absences
  - e. Infraction Referrals
  - f. Suspensions
2. Student Profile
  - a. Contact information
  - b. Assessments
  - c. Attendance
  - d. Grades
  - e. Schedule
  - f. Student reports (Select the data you need, but can provide an individual comprehensive report.)
  - g. Data sets
  - h. Special information
  - i. RTII
  - j. Notes and documents
  - k. Local assessment
  - l. Risk score
3. Reports
4. Data Depot (You determine how you would like to use it.)
5. Curriculum
  - a. Lesson Plans
  - b. SLO
  - c. Curriculum
6. Assessment Builder

Ways We Wave Used OnHands	Benefits
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Plan PSSA review lessons</li> <li>• Plan individualized instruction</li> <li>• Develop student achievement Plans and SAIP</li> <li>• Track behavior points in elementary</li> <li>• Track Career Readiness (Chapter 339)</li> <li>• Tracking of who has read GIEPs/IEPs</li> <li>• Reports</li> <li>• Purposeful assignments to get teachers to access the data</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Access to student data for everyone, whether at home or school</li> <li>• Customize our data to provide one data source for all of our data (reading, math, PSSA, MAP, etc.)</li> <li>• Import of data has saved our principals hours/days of data crunching</li> <li>• Alerts for changes in IEPs/GIEPs</li> <li>• Write GIEP/IEP especially as it pertains to present levels</li> <li>• Teachers can reach out to the help desk, if they have a question and is usually answered within an hour</li> <li>• OnHands works with us to meet our needs</li> <li>• Reports are beneficial for any use</li> </ul>